- The exemption request cannot be progressed without a copy of your full Academic Transcript being submitted at the time of application (these transcripts cannot be returned).
- Exemption applications will not be accepted by email.
- The deadline for submitting applications for exemptions is Friday, 26th July 2019.

Preparation for Test of Professional Skills (TPS)
You are applying for exemptions from Test of Competence (TC) subjects. This knowledge will be developed further at Test of Professional Skills (TPS). As you may have covered topics some years ago, it is your responsibility to ensure this knowledge is refreshed and up-to-date. It is essential to complete some revision before starting classes to ensure you can keep up with the new material at TPS. You will be required to sit an Assumed Knowledge Test before classes start.

We recommend that you start this revision as soon as possible, using either your University notes or the TC notes on the website. A summary of the key topics covered at TPS by subject can be found as pre-course information on the ICAS website. Once you are enrolled as a student you will receive a student number and password to access the ICAS website.

Please ensure that all the information you submit is secured together (e.g., stapled, treasury tagged) and is easily identifiable to your application.

Any other queries regarding exemptions should be directed to the Exemptions Administrator who can be contacted at educationsupport@icas.com
