Where there is a paragraph 52(1)(b) statement If there is no committee, or the committee does not make the requisite determination, and the administrator has made a statement under paragraph 52(1)(b), the remuneration and outlays may be fixed by –

(a) each secured creditor; or
(b) if the administrator has made or intends to make a distribution to preferential creditors –

(i) each secured creditor; and
(ii) preferential creditors whose debts amount to more than 50% of the preferential debts, disregarding debts of any creditor who does not respond to an invitation to give or withhold approval.

Application to court If the creditors’ committee or a meeting of creditors [or the secured and preferential creditors] fail to issue a determination the administrator shall submit a claim to the Court and it shall issue a determination.

Joint administrators Where there are joint administrators, it is for them to agree between themselves how the remuneration should be apportioned. If they cannot agree as to how the remuneration payable should be apportioned, any one of them may refer the issue for determination:

(a) by the court; or
(b) by resolution of the creditors’ committee or
(c) a meeting of creditors

Information to be provided

Provision of information to those approving remuneration The administrator must provide those responsible for approving his remuneration with the information required under Statement of Insolvency Practice 9.

Disbursements

Disbursements requiring creditor approval Category 2 disbursements, as defined by Statement of Insolvency Practice 9, must be approved in the same manner as remuneration.
Disbursements not requiring creditor approval
Category 1 disbursements, as defined by Statement of Insolvency Practice 9, do not require approval.

SIP 9

Fees for dealing with fixed charge assets

Realisations for secured creditors
When realising assets for secured creditors, the fees for dealing with the charged assets will usually be agreed with the secured creditor concerned.

Recourse to meeting of creditors

Request for increase
If the administrator's remuneration and outlays have been fixed by determination of the creditors committee and he considers the amount to be insufficient, he may request that it be increased by resolution of the creditors.

R.2.39(5)

Statement under paragraph 52(1)(b)
Where the administrator has made a statement under paragraph 52(1)(b), if the administrator considers that the remuneration and outlays fixed by the committee is insufficient the administrator may request that the remuneration and outlays be increased by the approval of –

(a) each secured creditor: or
(b) if the administrator has made or intends to make a distribution to preferential creditors:

(i) each secured creditor; and
(ii) preferential creditors whose debts amount to more than 50% of the preferential debts, disregarding debts of any creditor who does not respond to an invitation to give or withhold approval.

R.2.39 (5) & (8)

Recourse to the court

Administrator may apply to court
If the administrator considers that the remuneration or outlays fixed by the creditors’ committee or by resolution of the creditors is insufficient , he may apply to the court for the amount or rate to be increased.

R.2.39A(1)

Notice to creditors’ committee
The administrator must give at least 14 days’ notice of his application to the members of the creditors’ committee. The committee may nominate one or more members to appear, or be represented, and to be heard on the application.

R.2.39A(2)

Where no creditors’ committee
If there is no creditors’ committee, the notice of the administrator’s application must be sent to such one or more creditors as the court may direct, and those creditors may nominate one or more of their Costs of application: The court may order the costs of the application, including the expenses of any member of the creditors' committee or any creditor appearing or being represented, to be paid as an expense of the administration.

Creditors' claim that remuneration is, or other expenses are, excessive

Who may apply: Application may be made to the court by any secured creditor, or any unsecured creditor with either the concurrence of at least 25% in value of the creditors (including that creditor) or the permission of the court.

Grounds for application: Application may be made on the grounds that:
- the remuneration or outlays charged by the administrator, are, in all the circumstances, excessive.

Time limit: The application must be made within 8 weeks after the end of an accounting period.

Court order if application well-founded: If the court considers the application well founded, it shall make an order fixing the remuneration at a reduced amount or rate.

Pre-administration costs

Costs which may be paid as an expense: Costs which may be paid are fees charged and expenses incurred by the administrator, or another person qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner, before the company entered administration but with a view to its doing so. Details of such costs must be included in the administrator's proposals.

Approval of payment: Where there is a creditors' committee, it is for the committee to determine whether, and to what extent, such costs should be approved for payment. If there is no committee or the committee does not make the necessary determination, or if it does but the administrator, or other insolvency practitioner who has incurred pre-administration costs, considers the amount agreed to be insufficient, approval may be given by a meeting of creditors. Where the administrator has made a statement under paragraph 52(1)(b), the determination may be made by the same creditors as approve the administrator’s remuneration.

R.2.39C

Approval at request of another insolvency practitioner

The administrator must convene a meeting of the committee or the creditors for the purposes of approving the payment of pre-administration costs if requested to do so by another insolvency practitioner who has incurred such costs. If there is no determination under these provisions, or if there is but the administrator, or other insolvency practitioner, considers the amount agreed to be insufficient, the administrator may apply to the court for a determination.

R.2.39C

Priority of payment

Where approved, pre-administration costs are payable in the same order of priority as the administrator’s remuneration.
