CA Education.
Creating world-class business professionals.
What is a Chartered Accountant?

A Chartered Accountant is someone who is professionally qualified and has been trained with the technical ability to think strategically; solve problems; deliver solutions and manage risks. They will uphold the highest ethical standards and provide expert advice and guidance to your organisation and its customers.

A Chartered Accountant is someone who will help you develop and grow your business.

From Business Analysts and Senior Auditors to CFOs, Vice Presidents and CEOs, Chartered Accountants are some of the most influential and highly trained professionals working in business today.
Why train an ICAS Chartered Accountant?

At ICAS, we understand what it means to train world-class Chartered Accountants. It’s what we do.

For over 160 years we’ve been training CAs, sharing our knowledge and expertise and giving our students the technical knowledge, skills and values they need to help the world’s most successful businesses thrive.

In today’s challenging, ever-changing business environment the demand for highly-trained professionals has never been greater. At ICAS, we train forward-thinking, innovative, business leaders who are able to add value to any business. Our curriculum and real-life approach to assessment ensures that CAs develop and demonstrate the skills and knowledge needed to help businesses profit and grow.

An ICAS Chartered Accountant (CA) is a highly-skilled professional with the:

Knowledge
- and technical ability to complete complex accounting and business activities

Skills
- to effectively manage, communicate, advise and lead

Values
- to make informed professional judgments and uphold the highest ethical standards

It’s our all-inclusive approach that makes the CA qualification unique. It’s the perfect fit for businesses looking to train world-class business professionals.
By offering the CA qualification, your organisation will be able to:

Equip your business with the expertise needed to succeed

CAs are trained in a wide range of accounting and business skills that are transferable across all business areas. Your employees will gain the knowledge, skills and values that will help your business to grow.

Find a training solution that fits your business needs

ICAS is both the educator and examiner for the CA qualification. We design, deliver and examine the full qualification, providing you with a flexible training solution and one point of contact throughout.

Attract and recruit outstanding talent

By offering this world-class, prestigious qualification, you will be able to successfully compete in today’s recruitment market and attract amazing talent to your business.

Through our relationships with schools, colleges and the UK’s top 50 universities, we can support you in identifying and recruiting the best students for your firm. Our dedicated support and recruitment resources will help you showcase your business and find the right recruits.
Offer a prestigious, globally-recognised qualification

The CA qualification not only equips our members with the professional expertise needed to succeed in business, it also enables them to join our elite, global membership of over 20,000 members.

The designatory letters “CA” are an exclusive privilege for our members. We’re the only UK body whose members can use this designation.

Plan for the future

By offering the CA student a three year training contract (graduate) or five year contract (non-graduate), you will have a long term commitment from bright and dedicated employees.

As part of the ICAS community, we will also continue to support your employees long after they have qualified. Our members benefit from access to expert support networks and continued professional development. Your business will continue to benefit from a strong, ongoing relationship with ICAS.
Training centre locations

With training centres all over the UK and Channel Islands, your CA students will be able attend classes in a location that suits your business.
Becoming an ICAS Authorised Training Office (ATO)

It’s straightforward and free to become an ICAS Authorised Training Office (ATO).

Businesses of all sizes and from all industries can become Authorised Training Offices and start benefitting from training the CA qualification. From Practice, Industry or the Public Sector, all that’s required is demonstrating that your organisation can meet the training requirements.
